POLICY ON DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION

[Pursuant to SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015]

POLICY ON DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION

1. PREAMBLE

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sandhar Technologies Limited (the “Company” or “STL”), has adopted the following policy and procedures with regard to determination of materiality of events on February 02, 2019. The Board will constantly review, and if found essential, may amend this policy from time to time.

2. SCOPE & PURPOSE

As per Regulation 30 of the Securities Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“the Listing Regulations”), as amended from time to time, the Company is required to make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the listed entities, is material and to formulate a policy for determination of materiality of such events or information.

- i. As per the Listing Regulations, the Company shall mandatorily disclose the events as specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, and as amended by the regulatory authorities from time to time without applying any test of materiality,
- ii. The listed entity shall make disclosure of events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, based on application of the guidelines for materiality,

Guidelines for determining materiality of events or information

Quantitative criteria would be calculated based on audited consolidated financial statements and would mean the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:

(1) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the company;

(2) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;

(3) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the company;”

Any Event or Information shall, for the purpose of disclosure in terms of this Policy and the Listing Regulations, be considered as Material if: (Qualitative criteria would mean an event/ information):

(b) The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or

(c) The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or

(c) In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity, the event or information is considered material

- iii. Any other information/event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities, as stated under Para C of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, be disclosed as may be advised by the Board from time to time.
- iv. The Company shall make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed company, is material. In case where an event occurs or information is available with the company, which has not been indicated in Schedule III of the Regulations, but which may have material effect on it, the company is required to make adequate disclosures in regard thereof.

3. Objective
